TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

25th September 2022

Gospel: Luke 16:19-31

Jesus said to the Pharisees: 'There was a rich man who used to dress in purple and fine linen and feast magnificently every day. And at his gate there lay a poor man called Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to fill himself with the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even came and licked his sores. Now the poor man died and was carried away by the angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

'In his torment in Hades he looked up and saw Abraham a long way off with Lazarus in his bosom. So he cried out, "Father Abraham, pity me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in agony in these flames." "My son," Abraham replied "remember that during your life good things came your way, just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted here while you are in agony. But that is not all: between us and you a great gulf has been fixed, to stop anyone, if he wanted to, crossing from our side to yours, and to stop any crossing from your side to ours."

'The rich man replied, "Father, I beg you then to send Lazarus to my father's house, since I have five brothers, to give them warning so that they do not come to this place of torment too." "They have Moses and the prophets," said Abraham "let them listen to them." "Ah no, father Abraham," said the rich man "but if someone comes to them from the dead, they will repent." Then Abraham said to him, "If they will not listen either to Moses or to the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone should rise from the dead.'"

Pope at Angelus: Sunday 18th September

Speaking to pilgrims gathered in Saint Peter's Square for the Sunday Angelus, Pope Francis offered his weekly reflections on the Sunday Gospel, which recounts the parable Jesus told about the corrupt manager who squandered his master's property, but was discovered and set to be fired. The manager quickly and shrewdly found a way out of the situation to save himself. The Pope said understanding the point of this parable can be difficult at first, and we need to reflect on what lesson Jesus is giving us here.

The Pope made some observations about the manager in this parable: first, that he does not resign himself to his fate or play the victim, but on the contrary, acts with shrewdness in finding a way out of his bind. The Pope noted Jesus' words, "The children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light," who sometimes are not as alert or are too naive, not knowing how to take the initiative to find ways out of difficulties. Cleverness and creativity can be used for good and on behalf of serving others, he pointed out, noting that Jesus shows that in following the Gospel, we need to be honest, awake, and attentive to discern reality and be creative to find good solutions for ourselves and others.

Good for all

Another teaching the Lord gives us here is the importance of building up fraternal relations through generosity, sharing, and serving others with what we have. The Pope said that to inherit eternal life, "there is no need to accumulate goods in this world" and what matters is the love shown in our fraternal relations. The Pope said we are called to use the material goods of the world charitably, not selfishly, so they benefit everyone, especially the weakest.

Be positive

In conclusion, the Pope pointed out how today also we hear about stories of corruption, dishonest conduct, unfair policies, selfishness that dominates the choices of individuals and institutions, and many other murky situations. But he stressed that we Christians cannot allow ourselves to become discouraged, or worse, just ignore matters and remain indifferent.

"We are called to be creative in doing good with the prudence and the cleverness of the Gospel, using the goods of this world, not only material but all of the gifts we have received from the Lord, not to enrich ourselves, but to generate fraternal love and social fellowship. Let us pray to the Blessed Virgin Mary, that she may help us be like herself, poor in spirit and rich in works of charity for one another."

Eucharistic Ministers meeting to be held on Friday 7th October @ 5pm in the church.

General Audience 21st September 2022:

Dear Brothers and Sisters: Following my recent Apostolic Journey to Kazakhstan, I once more express my gratitude to the President of the Republic, the civil authorities, Bishops and lay faithful, and the many volunteers for their warm welcome. The primary purpose of my visit was to attend the Seventh Congress of Leaders of World and Traditional Religions, whose aim is to promote peace and human fraternity in our world. This gathering, together with its Final Declaration, is one more step forward on the path of interreligious dialogue, and continues a journey that began with the historic meeting in Assisi in 1986. This path also includes the Document on Human Fraternity signed in Abu Dhabi in 2019. When speaking of these noble efforts, we must also remember the many martyrs of diverse nationalities and backgrounds who have borne faithful witness in their daily lives to God's desire for peace and fraternity among his children. In addition to encouraging the nation in its vocation as a Country of Encounter, I was able to meet members of the local Church. This small yet faithful flock, fortified by the example of its saints, especially during the years of persecution, is open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. Indeed, it was fitting that we could celebrate Mass together on the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, an instrument of suffering and death turned into the ultimate sign of hope and salvation. Let us pray that God will abundantly bless the people of Kazakhstan and the life of the pilgrim Church in that land.

Ideas for the Parish post-Covid. Many thanks for your ideas for the parish post-Covid. At the meeting of the Parish Council last week, we reviewed your feedback and hope to implement many of the ideas over time subject to the availability of volunteers. We hope to restore things we lost during Covid (like socials, Tea and Coffee after Mass, Youth activities and Children's Liturgy of the Word) and try new things (like types of men's groups, women's groups, SVP, Legion of Mary, the new Faith course for young people and a course called Sycamore at the beginning of next year which encourages fraternity and conversation about faith matters after a good meal). Also, on Wednesday 23rd November at 7pm there will be a special Mass for parishioners who have died recently (especially those who died during Covid). Finally on Tuesday 20th December at 7pm, the Bishop will be coming to Wickford to celebrate Mass to mark the 50th Anniversary of the building of the church, with a reception afterwards.

Mary Jarvis RIP We pray for the repose of the soul of Mary Jarvis and the comfort and consolation of her family at this time. Her funeral will take place on Friday 7th October here at Our Lady of Gd Counsel in Wickford at 11am.

An update on Chris and May Carey:

They are now residing in Blenheim Court nursing home in Liss. They both thank you for the cards, prayers and kind wishes sent to them both after a difficult couple of months and wanted to say that they miss their Wickford parish family. They are settled and happy in their new surrounding and glad to be back together after time spent apart in different hospitals.

If anyone would like any further details or would like to visit or telephone please do not hesitate to get in contact with me and I can pass on all the information I have.

Please keep them both in your thoughts and prayers as they are both extremely grateful for these.

Our Lady of Good Counsel 50th Anniversary Celebrations:

Our Lady of Good Counsel is preparing for a very special celebration in December as our church marks its' 50th Anniversary and welcomes Bishop Alan to commemorate this with a mass.

We are also looking to hold a celebration gathering afterwards and would like to take a look back over these 50 years and are hoping you might be able to help!

Do you have any photos or press cuttings from over the years that depict Our Lady's Hall when it used to be the parish church, or even the church before that as it was further up the London Road? Or do you have some that show the building work that went on back in 1971/2 or maybe show some of the wonderful celebrations that have taken place within the church, halls or grounds? If so, please put them in an envelope with your name on and they will be photocopied and then the originals will be returned to you. Alternatively, feel free to jot down a special story that can be used. We can then put up a display of all these lovely memories.

New Faith course for young people

From September, Fr Mark will run a new Faith course designed especially for those young people who go to non-Catholic secondary schools, though, those who go to Catholic Secondary schools are also very welcome.
